

1. setup and configure Nest CLI boilerplate (Get everyone to do this individually)
2. Use json-server package to up a mockDB (This is pretty straight forward to setup a mockDB)
3. Create two GET calls

One for fetching the list of records

Another one for fetch a specific record by passing the id
4. create a POST method to add/update a record